The Library Has Gone Cashless!

The Gardner-Harvey Library is no longer accepting cash for printing or library fines. We can, however, accept payments via credit/debit card or MUIaa using your student ID.

So, if you are planning to print or make copies in the library:

- Make sure you have money in your MUIaa account before you plan on printing - here's how to add funds.
- If you need to print at the last minute, we can accept payment using your credit/debit card through the GHL Payment Portal.

If you are planning to pay a library bill, or pay for a poster, a 3D print, or a TEC Lab charge:

- We can accept payment using your credit/debit card through the GHL Payment Portal.
- We can also accept a payment using MUIaa funds that are already on your account.

Let us know if you have any questions, or if we can help you prepare

New Databases, Ebooks, and Videos to Get Your Semester in GEER!

OhioLINK, Ohio's academic library consortium, has added five new resources thanks to the Ohio Governor's Emergency Education Relief (GEER) funds (as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act). Since Miami University is a part of OhioLINK, we have new ways to help you in your research, teaching, and learning this semester!

Try out these resources as they are added to our Databases A to Z list (or have a look at them on OhioLINK's GEER Resources for Faculty page):

- Films on Demand (1 year of access)
 - ◊ A collection of academic streaming videos, currently being selected.
- JoVE Core + Lab Manual Combo (2 years of access)
 - ◊ JoVE Science Education videos teach science concepts and laboratory methods through engaging and easy-to-understand visual demonstrations, and include materials for biology, chemistry, and social psychology.
- MIT Press Direct eBooks (perpetual access)
 - ◊ Over 3,000 e-books on a wide range of topics, including art, architecture, business and management, cognitive science, computer science and artificial intelligence, design, economics, education, engineering, environmental science, linguistics, mathematics, neuroscience, philosophy, physics, technology, and social theory.
- Sage Business Cases (perpetual access)
 - ◊ More than 4,000 authoritative case studies across in-demand subjects such as entrepreneurship, accounting, healthcare management, leadership, social enterprise, and more.
- Wiley Cochrane Library (1 year of access)
 - ◊ A collection of databases containing high-quality, independent evidence to inform healthcare decision-making.

Remote Services Guide

Miami University Regionals Libraries continue to offer a wide array of services online, from streaming videos to eBooks to database and research tutorials. Check out our Remote Services Guide to stay updated on how we are working to serve you during this time.

Join Gardner-Harvey Library for our Virtual Fall Events

Monthly Book Discussion, Join us Online!

Join us on the last Tuesday of each month at noon for a virtual book discussion! A lively group of readers will be on hand to discuss our chosen book of the month along with others they've been reading. You can see our past chosen books on our Book Discussion Group page (we are always eager for recommendations on what to read next).

All of our events are free and registration is not required. You may find more information on all of our events and links to join them on our Events Calendar page.

National Parks Geology Speaking Series on Zoom!

Dr. Tammie Gerke, associate teaching professor in geology at Miami University, will share the geology and other interesting information about each national park. Get your questions answered and participate in a lively discussion on these national treasures.

- Death Valley - February 16
- Isle Royal - March 16
- Great Smoky Mountains - April 13

Third Tuesday of every month, 4:45-6:15 p.m.

Hear Unique Stories - Visit the Human Library

Join us as we share the stories of a collection of people: a Human Library. This effort, inspired by a group in Denmark (<https://humanlibrary.org>), is all about the opportunity to share our stories with one another.

We will be holding the Human Library on Wednesday, March 10 from Noon until 1:00pm on Zoom.

We have already had some books volunteer, and you can watch a short video of some of them.

We are also interested in hearing your unique story as a book. If you are willing to volunteer, please fill out our form.

Study Rooms, TEC Lab, and One Button Studio on the Middletown Campus

Do you need to use a study room for some quiet study space? To have a socially distant acceptable meeting with fellow classmates or your professor? Would you like to use the equipment in our TEC Lab or record videos in the One Button Studio? You may request to use one of our labs or rooms through our reservation page. Please note that the number of simultaneous users will be reduced to help support social distancing guidelines.

For more information on changes we have made to our spaces and services to help keep everyone safe, check out our Healthy Together @ the Regional Libraries guide.

Articles, Books, Conferences, and Webinars: Let us know what you have been working on

We want to know what you have been researching, writing, and speaking about. Let us know what journal articles, books, conference papers, artwork, webinars, and more you have published within the last 2—3 years. Please fill out our publication form (<https://forms.gle/nYQkjeD37a6hpgP69>) with a brief description and citation for your work.
